IN LOVE WITH GLENDALE

HOPES TO LOCATE HERE AND ENGAGE IN BUSINESS ON RETURN FROM EAST

A. V. Marcellus, who recently sold the Park Avenue Grocery to A. F. Webster of 208 West Elk avenue, was in Glendale Monday and called at the office of the Evening News. He still has his $10,000 home in Hollywood, which he purchased soon after he came to California last December. He had hoped to remain in business in Glendale and move here, but his presence was vitally necessary in his former South Dakota home for a few months if he would save business accounts totaling nearly $20,000. Hence he sold his Glendale store and will soon return to South Dakota hoping to dispose of everything there by the close of this year, when he will return to make California his home. His family will remain in Hollywood while he goes back east. His brief business career in Glendale was so successful and he likes the city so well that he plans to move here when he comes back and again engage in business.

MISS BLACKBURN AT WESLEYAN

The many friends of Miss Mary Blackburn will be pleased to learn that she has accepted a position as instructor in public school drawing at the Wesleyan University in Lincoln, Nebraska, and that she will also have a studio there for work in china painting, water colors and oils. Her china and pictures which have been stored with her friends here are being shipped to her this week to be used in furnishing her new studio.

RETURN FROM KANSAS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Danner of 1631 Gardena avenue arrived Friday from Walnut, Kansas, where they have been visiting relatives and old friends for the past two months. Both have been benefited by the trip, particularly Mr. Danner, who has not had a loading spell until now for some time. They report that a good many oil wells are being brought in there and they are hoping to strike it rich on the extensive acreage which is held by Mrs. Danner's mother, Mrs. Chadwick, and by Mr. Danner's parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. S. Danner, who accompanied them on the return trip, will spend the summer and coming winter here, where they have a good many friends and relations.

HOME FROM OAKE WILDE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shattuck and daughter, Leone, who have been spending a week at Oake Wilde in the Arroyo Seco, got home Monday noon full of enthusiasm over the comfort and beauty of the camp where they occupied Brook Crest Cottage. They had quite a week-end house party as G. W. Calkins and his niece, Miss Coral Griffith, came up Friday to spend the balance of the week at the camp and on Saturday evening Lewis Roberts and his sister Laura, Jesse Flower and Ida Potter came for over Sunday. It is a resort which is very easy of access as it is only about 16 miles away in Arroyo Seco on the road to Switzer's Camp.

WAR FLEET IS COMING

TO ARRIVE OFF L. A. HARBOR ON SATURDAY, AUGUST 9TH

All Southern California, which, of course, includes Glendale, is feverishly awaiting the visit of the Pacific Grand Fleet which is to reach Los Angeles harbor on Saturday, August 9th, and remain four days. It is now announced that only 34 of the more than 200 vessels will stop at San Diego, Los Angeles, Monterey and San Francisco. There will be six battleships, three cruisers, two auxiliary ships and 23 destroyers. Where the others go from the Panama Canal is not stated so it may be that the above announcement is an error. The ships will be so distributed for the four days that some of them will be off the beaches of Santa Monica, Venice, Redondo, San Pedro and Long Beach. Officers and men will be entertained by the people of all these cities and also by Los Angeles. No doubt the majority of the residents of Glendale will visit one or more of the beach cities to view the battle fleet, which is now slowly steaming up the Mexican coast. The official dates for the fleet's visits to Southern California cities is as follows: Arrive San Diego 10 a. m. August 7th; arrive San Pedro 2 p. m. August 9th and leave 8 a. m. August 13th; arrive Monterey August 14th and San Francisco August 15th, 10 a. m.

A FINE TRIP

PIERSON HANNING VISITS MOTHER AND BROTHERS IN THE MIDDLE WEST

Pierson Hanning of 451 Hawthorne arrived at home last Thursday from his visit back home. He was gone just 32 days but he certainly covered considerable territory and saw a lot in that time. When he started on the trip he went first to San Francisco and then to Ogden over the S. P., thence to Pueblo over the Denver & Rio Grande, enjoying the wonderful scenery between Provo, Utah, and Canyon City, Colorado, especially that witnessed in traversing the Royal Gorge. From Pueblo he went via the Santa Fe over to La Junta, Colo., and thence to Hutchinson, Kansas, his old home. Here he found his mother quite well, living on the old home place with another son. He enjoyed drawing up the cool water from the extreme north-west corner of the deep well he remembered so distinctly and its familiar salty flavor was no bar to his enjoyment. The water in all the wells in the section of Hutchinson where the deep salt mines are located have this saline taste, he says, and those who drink it regularly get to liking it very much. He and his mother, brother and sister-in-law drove by auto to Wichita, then down into Blackwell, Oklahoma, and 25 miles further south to the little town of Kaw, where another brother lives. Excessive rains in this section of Oklahoma have damaged the wheat and oats and hindered corn cultivation so that the weeds have gained dangerously. In Kansas black rust has ruined some of the wheat and grasshoppers destroyed much. The yield is from eight to sixteen bushels to the acre instead of the 30 to 40 (Continued on Page 4)

DROUTH NEARLY OVER

WATER SERVICE WILL BE NORMAL TOMORROW AT 9 O'CLOCK A. M.

Glendale citizens have behaved admirably during the water stringency of the last few days. There has been no grumbling, for all realized that the condition was but temporary and that the chemical process was necessary. Glendale's pure mountain water is known far and wide and is one of the attractions to intending residents, hence the necessity of not allowing its standard to be lowered. From 9 this morning to 9 tomorrow morning was and is the trying time, but there is no danger of vegetation suffering from this short respite in irrigation and all had ample time to provide themselves with drinking water, of which the supply was ample, through the foresight of the dealers and the generosity of some owners of wells. At 9 tomorrow morning all restrictions will be removed and soon we'll all forget we had this short period of drouth. Every lover of Glendale, and that means every citizen, is glad to do anything to preserve the high reputation of our beautiful city.

STREET CAR LINES TIED UP IN CHICAGO

CARMEN VOTE TO STRIKE AT 4 A. M. AFTER IT WAS SUPPOSED SETTLEMENT HAD BEEN REACHED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 29.—Carmen, employed on both surface and elevated lines suddenly rejected the plans made for the settlement of their demands last night and struck at 4 o'clock this morning. The city had gone to bed thinking all danger of a strike was over. It woke to find no cars running on any line. By 4.15 every car was tied up. The strike vote was overwhelming and shouts of "to hell with the public" rang through the strikers' meeting.

RACE RIOTS IN CHICAGO

DEAD NUMBER 19—GOVERNOR LOWDEN ORDERS MILITIA HELD FOR INSTANT SERVICE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, July 29.—Casualties in last night's race rioting totaled twelve whites and five negroes killed and 138 injured. The dead are all men. The injured were shot, torn in fist fights and struck by flying missiles. The governor has ordered the militia to be held in the armory for instant service.

During the morning two more negroes were killed in the business district bringing the total number of dead up to nineteen. One was killed when he appeared in an automobile in the business section. Another was dragged from a restaurant and beaten to death. White undertakers refused to care for the bodies of dead negroes and black undertakers were afraid to.

Governor Lowden today conferred with city officials, business men and negro leaders appealing to the business men to help in bringing about a settlement of the trouble intimating that the negroes were dissatisfied because of the recognition they had received in commercial ways after the war ended. Five negro leaders signed statements in which they blamed "false and misleading articles in certain local negro papers and the ill-advice of would-be leaders."

Twenty-five negro ex-soldiers patrolled beats in the negro district with police and helped maintain order.

FRANCO-AMERICAN-BRITISH TREATY

PRESIDENT SENDS IT BY MESSENGER TO DEMOCRATIC SENATORS FOR TRANSMISSION TO SENATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 29.—Following an hour's conference, Senators Swanson and Hitchcock, Democratic members of the Foreign Relations committee, sent the Franco-American-British treaty which they had received from President Wilson, to the Senate. The president sent the treaty by a messenger with a brief message.

The treaty provides that the United States and England shall go to the aid of France in case of German aggression. President Wilson's message declared that the treaty was signed the same day that the German treaty was signed and that it is essentially an agreement whereby two powers will ask the league executives for the right to go to the aid of the third power in case of attack by a fourth power without waiting for the league's approval. He declared the United States is still under obligations to France for France's part in winning American independence and said it is doubtful if the United States would have won independence without French aid. He pointed out as a significant fact that ("old antagonisms forgotten") the power from which France helped the United States to win independence now agrees to join the United States in repaying the debt. He urged the Senate to consider the treaty as a part of the peace settlement, and asked for favorable action.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S ITINERARY

MAY DELAY HIS DEPARTURE ON ACCOUNT OF HOT WEATHER AND NOT COME TO THIS COAST AT ALL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The itinerary of the President's tour has been completed. It calls for speeches in twenty-five of the leading cities and will consume thirty days. The date of his departure is uncertain. He may decide to postpone it until August 15th to avoid hot weather. If it is postponed it will probably mean that he cannot review the Pacific Fleet in San Francisco as planned.

ORDERS FOR LAST COMBAT TROOPS

THEY RECEIVE INSTRUCTIONS TO START FOR HOME FROM FRANCE AUGUST 15TH

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 29.—It was announced today that the First Division of the last combat troops in France would start for home August 15th.

ANTI-TRUST ACTION AGAINST PACKERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, July 29.—The Department of Justice is planning an anti-trust action against the Chicago packers.

CHAPLAIN-IN-CHIEF

CANDIDACY OF C. R. NORTON LAUNCHED FOR OFFICE AT NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT IN OHIO

Glendale should feel considerable interest and pride in the fact that a movement has been started by Russell C. Martin, Commander of the Department of California and Nevada G. A. R., John H. Roberts, C. H. Haskins and A. E. Leavitt, all past commanders, and by Henry Z Osborne, past senior vice-commander-in-chief, to launch the candidacy of Rev. C. R. Norton of this city for the position of chaplain-in-chief at the National Encampment to be held at Columbus, Ohio, September 7, 1919. In view of his five years of service as chaplain of the Veterans' Association of Southern California, and his great and deserved popularity among the "old boys," it would seem a very fitting appointment.

A communication has been addressed to representatives of the 53rd National Encampment, and dated July 21, 1919, signed by Commander Russell C. Martin, and endorsed by the Past Commanders mentioned, which reads as follows: Comrades:—

AUTO COLLISION

CLYDE BOTT RUN INTO BY A BUICK AUTO OUT CARRYING PICNIC PARTY TO BEACH

When C. H. Bott of the Glendale Book Store was on his way in his Buick six touring car Sunday to see his wife who was a patient at Thornycroft hospital and when in the act of crossing the street intersection at Colorado and Adams, his car was run into by a new Buick Six, belonging to Covina people who were on their way to the beach cities. The running board, and a wheel on the left rear of Mr. Bott's car were badly smashed up. The front right wheel and the fender on the Covina car were slightly damaged. The force of the collision sent Mr. Bott's car out of its way causing it to shoot diagonally across the street and sidewalk at the southwest intersection of the streets, but by the driver's careful steering it missed a large telephone pole by about eight inches, and came to a standstill on the lawn of a residence lot.

It was fortunate, indeed, that no one was injured in the collision. The Covina man took the entire blame upon himself, saying that Mr. Bott had the right of way.

A CONTINUED FAMINE IN RENTAL PROPERTY

There never was a time when carpenters were so busy as they are now. It seems impossible to get a small job done as all are engaged on long-time building contracts. Nearly all the new houses in process of erection are being built for sale and not for rent so the prospect for the many people who are so eager to move to Glendale to live is not very bright unless they have the money to buy, as rental property is almost impossible to find.

STREET PLANTING

SUBSCRIBER CALLS ATTENTION TO ECONOMIC VALUE OF EUROPEAN PLAN

To one of its subscribers the Evening News is indebted for a suggestion relative to street tree planting along lines which would not only beautify our thoroughfares and provide them with shade, but which would also yield an income to be applied on the cost of maintenance. The plan is embodied in an article contributed to a New York paper by Countess Von Krockow which describes European roadways planted with fruit bearing trees chosen after analysis of the soil has been made to determine to what sort it is best adapted. After the trees come into bearing, according to the article, in the spring of every year an auction of the prospective crop from the trees is advertised by the authorities of a neighboring town or village. The advertisement brings jobbers and retail dealers in food commodities to the spot, and the highest bidder secures the product of a given section.

"With the product goes a right to construct an appropriate number of temporary shelters of straw or timber between the trees along the road, for the use of the men who watch the fruit and, when ripe, pick and pack it for the market. A small, thriving business is also pursued meanwhile by selling handy quantities of fruit to passers-by and the throngs of people."

TO BUILD TWO HOUSES

W. S. CALDWELL PLANS ERECTION OF RESIDENCE BUILDINGS ON WEST BROADWAY

W. S. Caldwell, who recently returned from a year's stay in Twin Falls, Idaho, has just sold his beautiful home at 317 Myrtle street to J. F. McCann, who has been living at the Hawthorne Apartments for two or three months past. Mr. Caldwell gives possession September 10th. He has rented the Leighton place at 427 Ivy street. He has owned a lot on Broadway, just west of Central avenue for some time and recently began the erection of a 6-room Colonial bungalow on it. Monday he bought through H. S. Parker, the real estate man, the vacant lot just a short distance west of the one already owned and will build on that, too, later on. Mr. Caldwell has been engaged in carpentry and contracting in Glendale for several years.

TO THE CANADIAN ROCKIES

Mrs. Marcella Metcalf and her daughter, Miss Beeda Metcalf, of 340 North Maryland, are leaving Thursday on "The Lark" for San Francisco, Portland and Seattle, on the Puget Sound, and the Canadian Rockies, going as far as Banff and Calgary. They will go through Northern Idaho and come back to Spokane in Eastern Washington and on down the coast on their return journey. They plan to be gone a month, and are certain to see magnificent scenery on the route they have laid out.

RETURN OF NOBLE RIPLEY

In celebration of the return of Noble Ripley, who arrived Sunday from Brest, France, a family picnic party was held Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs. His friends report that Noble looks fine, better than ever before in his life. They are certainly glad to see him and he is glad to be at home after his somewhat disappointing army experience, for he reached France the day before the armistice was signed and has put in most of the time since that date at Brest. Mrs. Ripley, who is employed in the Public Service Department at the City Hall, is taking a vacation and she and her soldier husband leave Wednesday for an outing at Camp Baldy.

ANNOUNCEMENT PARTY

ENGAGEMENT OF MISS LOIS DUNCAN AND JOHN CATE REVEALED AT PRETTY FUNCTION

The home of Dr. A. M. Duncan at 1607 South San Fernando Road was the scene of a very pretty function last Saturday afternoon at which his daughter, Miss Lois Duncan, was hostess, assisted by her sister, Carol Duncan, and by Miss Ida Myers, her cousin. A yellow color scheme dominated the affair, carried out with floral decorations of coreopsis and yellow cannas.

The game of "Hearts," played with cubes bearing the letters forming the word, was played, and two prizes were bestowed, the first, a yellow silk bag going to Miss Hazel Green, the second, a lavender sash, to Miss Mildred Woodward. Yellow also featured the refreshments and the favors were small yellow baskets filled with tiny candles among which was discovered a little aeroplane bearing the names "Lois" and "John" and which announced the engagement of the hostess to John P. Cate, son of Mrs. Ella Cate of South Maryland avenue, this city. The young lady was at once showered with congratulations and in response to the demand for her wedding date stated that it would be September 3d.

The prospective groom, it will be remembered, was in service for about eighteen months with the 162d Aero Squadron and was overseas for something more than a year. He was discharged with the rank of sergeant. Miss Duncan, the bride-to-be, is a very attractive and popular young woman, particularly in the southern part of the city. Last year she taught at Brea. The guests who enjoyed her hospitality were: Misses Ruth Hinkelman, Della White, Georgina Mannatt, Ada Wertz, Ella Johns, Mildred Woodward, Naomi Hunt, Mesdames H. W. Duncan, A. H. Wheeler and Edward Fox all of Los Angeles, Misses Hazel Green and Margaret Hookway of Pasadena, Miss Jeannette White of Long Beach, Mrs. George Ham of Kingston, Misses Ruth Whytock, Phoebe Snell, Annie Cullingsworth, Ellen Cate, Carol Duncan, Harriet Myers, Ida Myers and Mesdames Allen Adams, J. P. Coleman, R. G. Cate and W. H. Hillman of Glendale.

FAMILY THAT GAVE MOST IN THE GREAT WAR

Who gave most to this country in the great war? It is a question that can never be answered, because so many of the factors that enter into the problem of war sacrifice are incommensurable—they cannot be expressed in figures or words. But so far as ordinary reckoning goes, the biggest sacrifice seems to have been that of a French farmer named Vanhee, of the village of Reminghe, near Ypres.

Vanhee had thirty-six children, twenty-two sons and fourteen daughters, all living when the war broke out—a family whose dimensions alone are remarkable, especially in France.

Thirteen sons were killed in battle. Three were discharged and with grave injuries, one of them losing both legs, another being rendered blind and deaf and the third suffering a severe skull wound requiring trepanning. One daughter was killed by a German shell. The father himself and another daughter were both shot without trial by the Germans for going innocently to Lille to celebrate the hundredth birthday of a relative.

Father, thirteen sons and two daughters killed and three sons maimed for life—what family in all the world, in Lincoln's noble words, "laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom?"—Berkeley Gazette.

NOT A CHANCE FOR REDS IN THE UNITED STATES

"Will there be a bolshevist movement in America?" Shucks! Of course, if you want the thrill of fearing so, you can manage to work it up. But you must be very excitable, and either you must be very young or else you must have confined your reading to the comic supplement or the baseball page. You must be young enough, or unread enough, to have forgotten Czolgosz and Guiteau, Homestead and the Haymarket, the Pittsburg riots and the Molly Maguires.

If you are of the temperament which in children gets thrills out of ghost stories and graveyards in the dark; if you make your definition of "bolshevism" generous enough; if everybody who says it's best to let Lenin and Trotsky run their course rather than try to kill them off with an American military expedition is a bolshevist; if everybody is a bolshevist who doesn't agree with your views about union labor, or the inheritance tax, or the Nicene creed; if you assume that every workman who is overcome by the lure of a spring day and quits his job to go fishing is an agent of organized bolshevism; if you assume that those pale and furtive imitators of Czolgosz who threw an occasional bomb at a mayor or an attorney general are members of an organized and disciplined army receiving orders from Trotsky; if you assume that the labor agitators who now call themselves the I. W. W. are anything more than the Molly Maguires were in the early '70s, or the Pittsburg rioters in the late '70s, or the Haymarket anarchists of the '80s, or the Homestead strikers of the '90s—if you assume all that and if you assume it on a hot day, then you may be able to work up a sweat over bolshevism in America.

Compared to what happens in a real revolution, all that is happening or is likely to happen in America isn't much more than the Washington police shooting Coxey's army off the white house lawn, or a fly swatting competition in a bolshevist parlor.—Mark Sullivan in Collier's Weekly.

Not a big crowd but a good and congenial crowd came out to enjoy the box social and dance given by Yeomen in their lodge hall on San Fernando Road last Friday night. Mrs. Tupper motored to Pomona on Saturday in her new Ford Sedan and spent the night with her aunt.

SHINING BY REFLECTED RAYS

While the boys in France underwent many hardships they had some fun out of the experience, too. They would have their jokes, no matter if they were almost at the last gasp and they could take a joke as well. David Young, who went from Glendale with the 158th Ambulance Corps, lay in a hospital for more than four months as a result of complications following an operation for appendicitis, but nothing could quench his spirit. One day an English nurse who had heard him mention Los Angeles, turned quickly to him and inquired: "Did you live in the California city of that name in the United States?" David replied that he did. "Do you know Clara Kimball Young, the actress?" she next inquired. "Surely," said David, "she's my sister." "Oh," said the nurse, "that's wonderful. I just love to see her on the screen." Soon she excused herself and went out to the nurses' room, where she must have imparted the wonderful news, for heads began to dodge in and out of the door of his ward as the owners reverently gazed on the brother of the noted actress. David basked in the reflected light of her glory for several days till some envious comrade gave him away.

FIFTH NIGHT ENTERTAINMENT

As is well known every Wednesday night is "Church Night" at Central Christian, when all the business of the week except that of the official board is transacted. A supper is served at 6, then comes meeting of committees to perform the work of the church and then prayer meeting. Every third month there are five Wednesdays and the last one in that month is called "Fifth Night" and is devoted to sociability. After the supper there is a brief prayer service and then an entertainment of some kind lasting an hour or more. As July has five Wednesdays, tomorrow night will be given over to such a program. The entertainment will be literary and musical with both home and foreign talent and a very pleasurable evening is promised. The program begins at 7:45. It is free to all and not even an offering will be taken. Friends of the church as well as all the members, are cordially invited to attend.

DOUGHBOYS REJOICED

BLACKBERRIES TABOOED BY FRENCH RARE TREAT TO AMERICAN SOLDIERS

According to one of the Glendale soldiers who recently returned from abroad the highways in some parts of France are very picturesque. They are 75 feet wide and the roadway proper, in the center, is bordered by beautiful shade or fruit trees. Between these and the division line separating highways and farms is a carefully-kept stretch of grass which is cut regularly by the peasants living near. Many of the line "fences" are rows of blackberry bushes. Strange to say, the French people of the region where this soldier noted this will not eat blackberries because once upon a time a great duke or prince was said to have been poisoned by the fruit. The doughboys had no such scruples, however, and for weeks they feasted on the luscious berries, gathering them in their helmets. Owing to the scarcity of flour, the luxury of pies and cobblers had to be foregone, though they did have one or two batches of turnovers.

MRS. MARY EDWARDS COMING

Mrs. James Farrell of 1123 East Broadway is in receipt of a postal card from her old friend, Mrs. Mary W. Edwards, who formerly resided here but is now living in El Paso, Texas, announcing her intention of coming to Glendale for a visit, saying: "Have that fried chicken ready for I shall be there to eat it next week." Mr. and Mrs. Farrell have had another of their week-end auto and camping trips at Balboa and report excellent luck at fishing or enough to supply their table all the time they were there.

TEACHERS TOUR CALIFORNIA

Mrs. Charles Casselman of 451 W. Elk avenue had the pleasure Sunday of entertaining an old friend from Ainsworth, Nebraska, Mrs. Charles Holt, who is visiting her brother, Will Coryell, of Burbank. Mrs. Holt was accompanied by her daughter, Dora. She is making quite a stay in Southern California. In the afternoon Mrs. Casselman was surprised by a call from her niece, Miss Edith Patterson, of San Jose, who with a party of four young ladies who like herself are teachers, was on her way home in an auto trip from San Jose to San Diego. It was Miss Patterson's first visit to Southern California and she is so delighted with the country and the trip that she is planning now to buy a car of her own and bring her parents here for a visit. The car belongs to one of the members of the party which has had a very successful and delightful tour thus far, as they have broken the journey by stops to visit friends en route.

ELKS' CLUB MEETING

The meeting at the Elks' Club House Monday night was a short session and no matters of special importance were presented. Two distinguished visitors were present, however, Past Exalted Ruler Potts, and the president of the Elks' State Association, Harry Tichnor. A supper was served in the Social Hall following the meeting. Next Monday a class of fifteen will be initiated, and it will be an occasion of more than usual importance. A drive is now on for new members with the aim of increasing the enrollment to one thousand. Harry Tichnor, whose home is in Pasadena, promised that a large delegation of Pasadena Elks will be present at the next meeting of the Glendale Lodge.

TIGHT ISLAND WANTS TO BAR U. S. MOVIES

(By United Press)
GLASGOW. (By Mail). — Four hundred film exhibitors at a conference held here unanimously decided to support the Cinematograph Exhibitors' Association in fighting the project of a wealthy American film-producing corporation which, it was stated, intends to install picture-houses in Great Britain. The corporation's pictures are to be banned unless they satisfy the association that they are not promoting new cinemas. Film-exhibitors are desirous of ousting "gun-work" from the films and introducing more fisticuffs. A great number of boys and youths have been brought before the magistrates for re-enacting in real life the modes of assault and burglary which they claimed to have seen "at the movies."

As the cinema seems to be a source of inspiration for criminals, the film of the future will show punishment inflicted with the fist instead of with the bullet.

UNIVERSITY PRUNING SYSTEM

Two weeks' study in the University of California horticulture short course at the University Farm, Davis, from December 8 to 20, affords opportunity to deciduous fruit growers to fully familiarize themselves with the principles and practice of pruning both young and bearing trees, and to learn how a certain amount of pruning can be advantageously given to bearing trees in early summer, as well as to young trees that are in process of being shaped, according to Dean Thomas Forsythe Hunt of the University of California.

Widespread interest in the new method of pruning advocated by the University is one of the reasons for the short course, it is stated, and another is facilities at the University Farm to point out ordinary pitfalls to growers who are trying the new method but who do not seem to get proper results.

"AVERAGE NEW YORKER" WINS FRENCH WAR CROSS

(By United Press)

PARIS. (By Mail). — The services that the "Average New Yorker," over the military age, rendered at the front in France, have been recognized by the French Army in the award, announced today, of the Croix de Guerre to Sterling S. Beardsley, a New York cotton broker. Beardsley soup by the gallon. Two weeks lat-served for nine months with the American Red Cross as a canteen worker in the fighting zone. Marshal Petain was the signer of his citation.

Captain Beardsley gained the nickname of "The Average New Yorker" in the press dispatches. The idea conveyed was that Beardsley's situation in life at the time America entered the war was about the average of thousands of New York business men. He was a broker, over 42, had been twice refused by the Army, had a wife and two children. He bought Liberty Bonds, contributed to the welfare organizations and joined in various "win the war" activities.

But somehow this work did not suffice him and so he obtained a commission with the Red Cross. He sailed for France in January, 1918. Two months later he was in the midst of the biggest offensive the German Armies had ever attempted—the Somme drive of March, 1918.

Beardsley had never made a cup of chocolate or performed any kitchen labor in his life. But the night he reached the front on top of a rolling soup kitchen he started to scour pots and pans. He explained that he "just figured out" that they ought to be clean.

That night the enemy airmen came over where his soup kitchen was set up and he had to sleep in a damp, rat-infested wine cellar. Next day he set to work to make coffee, cocoa and er when he took his clothes off for the first time since his arrival, he realized that he had become a first-class soup chef.

He stayed at his soup kitchen in Compiègne for two months. Then he had orders to move to the Marne. He set up his kitchen in Chateau-Thierry. Forced out of there, he went on to another town where he found a hospital full of wounded with insufficient medical staff. He scrubbed floors and aided the doctors at operations and served soup and coffee from his canteen "on the side."

ple that love to come out on pleasant days to relish it in the open. The income from the auction sale pays a good part or the whole of the wages of the section road-superintendent and his helpers, besides providing stipends to such inmates of the local poorhouses as are found capable of handling a shovel or stone-breaking hammer.

"Very considerable sums are thus saved to the pockets of taxpayers. Village communities are spared the outlay for stone-crushers and much carting, for the authorities urge farmers to improve their fields bordering on the roads by collecting the stones in them and throwing them out on piles between the trees, where they can be broken up and used for fillings.

"In fact, no end of benefit results all around; the amount of fruit is increased greatly, cheapening its price to consumers; taxpayers are spared in pocket; farmers obtain convenient riddance of the stones encumbering their land; pauper workmen earn the comfort of tobacco and better health; while your automobilist besides getting his "shade" may get a luncheon dessert of seasonable deliciousness."

confidently expected. This is in the area surrounding Wichita and Hutchinson. On his return Mr. Hanning stopped at Bucklen, Kansas, then drove 25 miles in an auto to Liberal, Kansas, where a brother of his wife lives. Here the wheat was much better, much of it yielding 40 bushels to the acre. He found that a small nephew had a few days before been kicked by a mule and the back of his skull fractured, but he was recovering. Returning to Bucklen Mr. Hanning continued on over the Rock Island to Tucumcari, New Mexico, where he owns a quarter section of government land. Oil well drillers are within 10 miles of his land and he was importuned by promoters to lease his holdings. He was offered a bonus of $1 an acre, besides a royalty, but deferred action, hoping to get better offers. From Tucumcari he resumed his homeward journey, by way of El Paso. He found all well on his arrival.

He does not think much of Kansas and Oklahoma roads. In the section he traversed they are almost all dirt roads and are deeply rutted. About the only attention they get, apparently, is dragging. The tight-fisted farmers back there are too eager to pile up the money to spend any on good roads, he says.

The Department of California and Nevada, G. A. R., will present the name of Comrade C. R. Norton for the position of Chaplain-in-Chief at the Encampment to be held at Columbus, Ohio, September 7, 1919.

The Rev. C. R. Norton enlisted as a private in the 148th Ohio Infantry when he was only eighteen years of age, and served till the Confederacy was no more. While he does not claim to have put down the rebellion, he did his share. He has been a member of this department for a long time and has always been active in promoting its interests.

He has served as Chaplain of his Post for ten years, and as Chaplain of the Southern California Veteran Association for five years and as Chaplain of this Department for the past two years. His earnest, energetic and patriotic work has stimulated and encouraged our Comrades to a higher sense of duty, and he is beloved by all.

It will be remembered that we are almost an out-post, and our remote position from the center of G. A. R.
